The First-Time Manager - Workbook

Practitioner course | Trainer: Daniel Okafor

About this workbook

The conversations, habits and boundaries that make the first year of managing work.

Use it alongside the course player. Print it, or type your answers into a document. Writing things down makes them easier to remember and to act on.

Reflection questions

1. Which task are you still doing that someone else could learn, and what is stopping you handing it over?

2. When did you last leave a one to one with an action that actually happened?

3. What feedback have you been avoiding giving, and what would the useful version sound like?

Write your answers below each question. There are no right answers.

Exercise: Delegation plan

1. Pick one task you could hand over this week.

2. Write the outcome you want and why it matters.

3. Decide the support the person needs and two check-in dates.

4. Hand it over and review it at the first check-in.

Seven-day action plan

Choose one outcome from this course to practise.

Day 1: decide the situation where you will use it.

Day 2 to 6: use it once a day and write one line about what happened.

Day 7: review. What worked, what will you change, who will you tell?

Outcomes to choose from:

- Run one-to-ones people find useful

- Delegate without disappearing

- Give feedback that changes behaviour

Confidence check

Rate your confidence with each outcome from 1 to 10 now, and again in two weeks.
