Emotional Intelligence in Practice - Workbook

Practitioner course | Trainer: Maya Thompson

About this workbook

Use emotional intelligence in real conversations: feedback, conflict and influence.

Use it alongside the course player. Print it, or type your answers into a document. Writing things down makes them easier to remember and to act on.

Reflection questions

1. Which emotion tends to influence your decisions without you noticing?

2. What is the conversation you have been putting off, and what is the shared goal in it?

3. How do you usually react when you receive feedback, and what would you like to change?

Write your answers below each question. There are no right answers.

Exercise: Prepare a difficult conversation

1. Write the shared goal in one sentence.

2. Write your opening using behaviour, impact and an invitation.

3. List the other person’s likely interests.

4. After the conversation, note what went well and what you would change.

Seven-day action plan

Choose one outcome from this course to practise.

Day 1: decide the situation where you will use it.

Day 2 to 6: use it once a day and write one line about what happened.

Day 7: review. What worked, what will you change, who will you tell?

Outcomes to choose from:

- Stay steady in a heated conversation

- Give feedback that lands without defensiveness

- Influence peers without positional power

Confidence check

Rate your confidence with each outcome from 1 to 10 now, and again in two weeks.
