Well-being Conversations for Managers - Workbook

Practitioner course | Trainer: Grace Whitfield

About this workbook

Start supportive conversations about well-being and know where your role ends.

Use it alongside the course player. Print it, or type your answers into a document. Writing things down makes them easier to remember and to act on.

Reflection questions

1. What stops you from asking someone how they are, really?

2. When someone shares a problem, do you tend to fix it or listen, and what is the effect?

3. Who in your organisation could you contact if someone needed more support than you can give?

Write your answers below each question. There are no right answers.

Exercise: Conversation plan

1. Write an opening sentence that mentions what you noticed, in neutral terms.

2. Write two open questions you could ask.

3. List the support options you could signpost to.

4. Plan when you will check in again.

Seven-day action plan

Choose one outcome from this course to practise.

Day 1: decide the situation where you will use it.

Day 2 to 6: use it once a day and write one line about what happened.

Day 7: review. What worked, what will you change, who will you tell?

Outcomes to choose from:

- Open a well-being conversation with confidence

- Listen without trying to fix

- Signpost to the right support

Confidence check

Rate your confidence with each outcome from 1 to 10 now, and again in two weeks.
